Chapter 1 by Olive Oil

On a dark, cloudy day a group of friends took a long walk through a mysterious woods. They did not know where they were going. The group of friends were made up by Sarah (8), Kylie (11), Connor (12), and Asher (12). They were over at Asher's house and that's where they were supposed to be, but they tricked his mom and said that they were just going to the story which was about a block away. They saw the woods and thought it was a good adventure for them to take. They thought it was only going to take about 5 minutes, but they never knew it would take them forever to get out of the foggy woods. They decided that they would go through it just to find out what was in there. Sarah went in first with no fear, but Kylie didn't want to go through because she didn't want to break the rule of not telling a parent where they are going or where they were. Connor and Asher wanted to go without hesitation, they liked the creepiness, they liked all the dark, scary things too. Will they go into the woods or will they stick to the rule and head home?

Chapter 2 by Olive Oil

They made their choice and they were going to go into the woods, but they made one little promise. That promise was if any scary or somebody comes toward the kids they would run home right away. Everybody agreed and on they went. Walking into the wood line was one of the biggest mistakes in their lives yet. They didn't even realize it, but somebody, something was following them into the woods. They stuck by each others sides, so nobody would get lost or hurt. They found a long piece of string on the wood line so they tied everyone together. The leader was Asher of course because he's the biggest, then Sarah, then Kylie, and at the end was when they thought " If a dog was here with a bag of food, there was too be a person with him. That's when they heard a rumbling noise come from behind them. They turned around and they could not believe their own eyes.

Chapter 3 by Aaron Balaky

They saw a green clothed man and the green clothed man lunged for them. They tried to stick to their plan to run home but something twisted around Kylie and Connor's legs and everybody was tied to them so everyone got pulled down. They screamed,"HELP US!" To their disadvantage they were too far into the woods. The green clothed man sprayed some kind of chemical in the air and all the kids collapsed. They woke up in some kind of black, scary, dark cave and they all were truly scared.

Chapter 4 by Gabbathehutt

They quietly took a look around the cave. Connor, Sarah, and Kylie had gags over their mouths. Asher didn't. He looked around and saw the strange elf/man sitting in the corner on a dark brown piece of clothing. He instantly charged at the thing but his wrists were tied into the cave wall. He looked up at the ceiling of the cave and saw green dust coming down at them. The other three probably didn't know what it was but Asher did. It was knockout gas. The man looked at him and said "Too bad you didn't just use that gas mask over there." Everything went black.
